MARINE SAFETY INFORMATION BULLETIN

[MSIB # 20-13]

November 26, 2013

HIGH WINDS AND HEAVY WEATHER

Winter weather and strong winds are expected to impact the Delaware Bay Captain of the Port Zone the night of Tuesday, November 26. The Captain of the Port urges waterfront facility operators along the Delaware River to take prudent measures with heavy equipment and infrastructure which may be affected by strong winds.

Bridge operators at moveable bridges are requested to contact the Coast Guard Sector Delaware Bay Command Center in the event that winds approach operational limits.

Mariners should report hazards to navigation to the Command Center, and proceed with caution at all times. USCG Sector Delaware Bay Command Center can be reached on VHF Channel 16 or call (215) 271-4807.
